COLM O'CALLAGHAN NAMED MANAGING DIRECTOR OF MONTAGE BEVERLY HILLS

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (December 14, 2017) - Montage Hotels & Resorts has announced the appointment of Colm O'Callaghan as managing director of Montage Beverly Hills. Drawing upon over 30 years of experience at luxury properties from coast to coast, O'Callaghan will oversee all operations of the urban hotel located steps away from iconic Rodeo Drive in the heart of the Golden Triangle of Beverly Hills.

"Colm's extensive background in luxury hospitality and his wide-ranging experience in gateway cities across the country will be a true benefit to Montage Beverly Hills," said Alan J. Fuerstman, founder, chairman and CEO of Montage International. "We look forward to him applying his expertise to deliver the high-touch service for which Montage is known."

Over his career, O'Callaghan has served various notable properties including The Peninsula Hotel, Chicago; Mandarin Oriental Hotel, San Francisco; The Beverly Hilton, Beverly Hills; and The St.

Regis, New York City.   More recently, O'Callaghan served as regional vice president of Trump Hotels, where he oversaw that portfolio's properties in Chicago, New York and Washington, D.C.

O'Callaghan graduated with honors from Shannon College of Hotel Management in County Clare, Ireland. O'Callaghan has been involved in multiple charity organizations and most recently sat on the Board of Directors for Mercy Home for Boys and Girls, Chicago.  A native of Killarney, County Kerry, Ireland, Colm is a third generation hotelier.
