

MONTAGE Generations

Set high in the mountains of Park City, Montage Deer Valley provides a year-round destination that welcomes families seeking extraordinary experiences to share with their loved ones.

With Montage Generations, guests have the opportunity to choose from an array of educational and adventurous activities. This variety will engage all generations of the family and provide meaningful experiences, to be cherished for years to come. Each program was designed to create an enriching environment, where families can participate in hands-on activities. These unique options allow for inspiration, learning, exploring and sharing laughs, which ultimately build lifelong memories that create family traditions.

A LIFETIME of FAMILY MEMORIES

Family Tubing Night

Select Saturdays, join us for an evening of fun with our Family Tubing Night. Warm up with hot cocoa and Montage S'Mores by the fire and partake in a winter tradition that is enjoyed by all ages. Complimentary, 4pm to 6pm. Contact the concierge for availability.

The ARTFUL FAMILY

Enjoy an afternoon or evening with the family and explore your inner artist. Be inspired by the talented art instructors from Park City's own Paint Mixer as they guide your family through a painting class. Choose from one of two class options; a regular class with art prepared by the instructor or submit your own image if you wish to personalize this family experience.

2 hours. $960 for regular class, $1,500 for custom submissions. (image must be submitted 9 days in advance for custom submissions).

Aspiring CHEFS

Join Montage Deer Valley and the Park City Culinary Institute for the highlight of our winter Montage Generations offerings; Aspiring Chefs. This class is designed to teach the basics of cooking to a new generation of aspiring chefs. Parents and grandparents can sit back and relax with small bites and beverages while they watch their children prepare a 3-course meal.
