PALMETTO BLUFF

A destination renowned for historic moments.
INCLUDING YOURS.

Past and present entwine here, as beautifully as the twisting branches of our giant, moss-laden oaks. Weddings echo with antebellum grandeur — gas lamps, cobbled streets and pealing bells — as well as today’s most enchanting Lowcountry pleasures. Exchange vows in a quaint, waterside chapel. Dance and dine on a sun-splashed veranda. And indulge in a romantic honeymoon brimming with sunset cruises, horseback rides and couples massages. At Montage Palmetto Bluff, perfect moments like these are just as endless as they are timeless.

Venue Choices for a Dream Wedding

SELECTIONS TO SUIT EVERY HAPPY COUPLE

Waterside Chapel

Overlooking the pristine salt water of the May River, the Waterside Chapel features stunning views through its arched windows. And the Chapel's charming, understated design offers an intimate and romantic setting for a truly breathtaking ceremony.

Inn Chapel

Streams of natural light flow in through the expansive windows of the Inn Chapel and showcase beautiful views of the lagoon waterway and surrounding natural landscape. Simple and elegant architectural features accent this versatile space creating a beautiful setting for weddings, receptions or other events.

Oak Ballroom

With its classic colonial architecture and sophisticated décor, the Oak Ballroom is an elegant and versatile venue. The ballroom fills with natural light as the sun beams through the French doors and windows. The large wraparound veranda, which surrounds the ballroom on three sides, offers stunning views of the May River. At 1,800 square feet, the Oak Ballroom can accommodate several seating arrangements as well as space for dancing and entertainment.

Wilson Ballroom

The Wilson Family was known for style, grace and extravagant entertaining. Paying homage to their grand traditions, the Wilson Ballroom was named. The 7,000 square feet of space may be used for one grand event, divided into four smaller sections for a more intimate affair or an event that flows from room to room. The pre-function space is ideal for cocktails or gathering and looks directly out onto the lush grand lawn.

Venue Choices from Contemporary to Casual

Wine Cellar

The River House has an exquisite Wine Cellar, complete with over 4,000 bottles, and offers a definitively unique setting for a private party. Guests enjoy the ambience and privacy the Wine Cellar affords, with dramatic lighting, a stone fireplace and original artwork by local artists. The Wine Cellar also features a cigar display and cozy lounge area with couches. Depending upon your event layout, a small entertainment and dancing area may be an option.

Canoe Club

One of a kind venue, designed to mimic the inside of a canoe, the arched ceiling of gorgeous woodwork and stunning water views of the Canoe Club are sure to amaze. The perfect location for a Sunday brunch, guests are surrounded by the beauty of the serene banks of the May River and interior lagoons.

May River Golf Grill

Nestled among the immaculate fairways and gorgeous live oaks of the May River Golf Club, the May River Grill at the Clubhouse is the ideal spot for casual dining in a relaxed atmosphere. This venue offers views of the 18th green and your own private fire pit for roasting s'mores.

Wilson Lawn & Racquet Club

This expansive Palmetto Bluff Club facility boasts eight Har-Tru tennis courts, two croquet lawns, two bocce courts, four courtside shelters and a 2,715 square foot Pro Shop and pavilion. Wilson Lawn and Racquet Club is an ideal venue for an open-air Welcome Party, Bridal Luncheon, Sunday Brunch, or other special event. Notes: Additional lighting is necessary for evening events, at an additional cost.

Venue Choices with Lowcountry Flair

May River Lawns and Outdoor Fire Pits

With amazing views along the May River, guests are greeted under branches of ancient oak trees on the lush lawns of Palmetto Bluff. This venue is an ideal location to sip a libation and watch the tides at sunset or invite guests to enjoy a gourmet s'mores roast, and lounge in Adirondack chairs around the fire. A setup fee is required to reserve a fire pit and will include an attendant to assist guests, additional seating (if requested), and a banquet display of any s'mores or snacks chosen.

Village Green

In the heart of Wilson Village, mere steps from the Waterside Chapel, lies the Village Green. Centrally located and overlooking the May River, this venue is home to the historic ruins of the Wilson Mansion, which once hosted some of the most extravagant southern parties in the early 1900s. With its historic influence, the Village Green is an ideal location to put up a tent in which to hold an amazing reception or special event. Notes: Tent and necessary rentals are not included. Event must conclude by 10 p.m.

Moreland Landing

This unique venue was built in September, 2003 by renowned sculptor and craftsman, Wayne Edwards. Complete with an amazing stone fireplace, Moreland Landing is situated on the May River and offers spectacular views of the pristine water. Just beyond the pavilion, under the open air, is an oyster fire pit where fresh Lowcountry oysters are steamed, and guests may be treated to a scrumptious, traditional oyster roast. Also located at Moreland Landing and anchored to the banks of the May River, is an incredible 5-story tree house which wraps around a centuries-old live oak tree. Notes: Site fee includes trolley transportation for up to 100 of your guests for 3 hour event from the Inn to Moreland.

Grace Yacht

Set sail aboard this historic 60-foot yacht for a truly one-of-a-kind venue. The amazing Grace was built in 1913 and has amassed a long list of colorful owners. She was acquired by the Bluff in 2004 and has been lovingly restored to her former splendor. A celebration on board Grace offers a romantic and intimate setting with unrivaled views of the natural beauty of the May River.

Food with a Sense of Place

SELECTIONS TO SUIT EVERY HAPPY COUPLE

Seafood is foundational to South Carolina's coastal cuisine, and the kitchens of Montage Palmetto Bluff play host to fresh, daily catches of shrimp, oysters, crab and more from the May River, the ocean-fed estuary just outside its doors. Our culinarians employ the finest ingredients — not just the freshest seafood, but locally sourced produce, meats, grains and cheeses. The result is transcendent interpretations ranging from Southern classics like biscuits and gravy and fried green tomatoes to venison osso bucco and roasted baby beet salad. Choose from a variety of delectable menus or allow our team to create something uniquely designed for your perfect day.
