AT MONTAGE PALMETTO BLUFF

Celebration

Past and present entwine here, as beautifully as the twisting branches of our giant, moss-laden oaks. Weddings echo with Southern grandeur — gas lamps, cobblestone streets and pealing bells — as well as today's most enchanting Lowcountry pleasures. Exchange vows in a quaint, waterside chapel. Dance and dine on a sun-splashed veranda. And indulge in a romantic honeymoon brimming with sunset cruises, horseback rides and couples massages.

At Montage Palmetto Bluff, perfect moments like these are just as endless as they are timeless.

Accommodations

Montage Palmetto Bluff features a total of 200 guest accommodations which pay homage to the region's rich heritage. Designed in classic Colonial style, accommodations include spacious cottages, guest rooms and suites, all with luxury amenities, spacious bathrooms including separate shower and soaking tub, and up-to-date technology. Genuine pine floors, high vaulted ceilings, cozy fireplaces, and spacious screened porches are signatures of our 50 cottages and guest rooms. The design throughout the Inn and its 150 rooms is coastally inspired with the furnishings, art and accessories reflecting the subtle colors and natural surroundings of the resort.

Ceremonies

MAY RIVER CHAPEL

Overlooking the pristine Lowcountry waters and salt marshes, the May River Chapel features stunning views through its arched windows. The charming, understated design offers an intimate and romantic setting for a truly breathtaking ceremony. Interior capacity for up to 120 people.

SOMMERSET CHAPEL

The grand Somerset Chapel provides a stately welcome to Montage Palmetto Bluff. Beautiful arched windows face east and west providing spectacular lighting from sunrise to sunset as the streams of light filter through, creating a magical setting.

Interior capacity for up to 185 people.

SUNRISE LAWN

Located in the back yard of the Inn, the lush green lawn is framed by the lagoon waterways and maritime forest.

Its location is ideal for both intimate weddings and grander affairs of up to 400 guests.

VILLAGE GREEN

In the heart of Wilson Village, mere steps from the Waterside Chapel, lies the Village Green. Centrally located and overlooking the May River, this venue is home to the historic ruins of the Wilson Mansion, which once hosted some of the most extravagant Southern parties in the early 1900s. With its historic influence, the Village Green is an ideal location to put up a tent in which to hold an amazing reception or special event for up to 500 people.

GRACE YACHT

Set sail aboard this historic 60-foot yacht for a truly one-of-a-kind venue. The amazing Grace was built in 1913 and has amassed a long list of colorful owners. She was acquired by the Bluff in 2004 and has been lovingly restored to her former splendor. A celebration on board Grace offers a romantic and intimate setting with unrivaled views of the natural beauty of the May River. Dolphins and seabirds are frequent escorts. Grace is available for weddings accommodating up to 24 guests.

Activities on the Water

Whether you're looking to reel in a big catch or just enjoy a scenic ride through the Coastal Carolina marshlands, you'll be out on the water early and often at Palmetto Bluff. For anglers, the options are abundant – casting for largemouth bass in the freshwater ponds, fly-fishing for redfish in the salt marsh flats, trolling for trophies in the depths of the Atlantic. Whether you catch and release or bring home your bounty, you'll be thrilled to experience an array of fishing at its finest.

Of course, the smooth and scenic waterways provide plenty of entertainment for those who aren't inclined to bait the hook. You've never truly experienced a Lowcountry sunrise or sunset until you've seen one from a kayak or canoe, and the miles of water trails make for a paddler's paradise. Power boaters can explore the May River and venture on to the Intracoastal Waterway. Wilson Landing offers plenty of watercrafts for rental and private charters, including the meticulously restored 1913 yacht Grace – a truly amazing way to experience the Carolina waters.

These are just a few of the activities that can be experienced on the waters in and around Palmetto Bluff:

- Boat tours to historic Daufuskie Island or private beaches, Shrimping and Crabbing,
- Full and half days on the water tubing and skiing, Scenic dolphin tours,
- Salt-water fishing, Fresh-water fishing, Paddleboarding

Activities on the Land

EQUESTRIAN

Guests can also spend time at Longfield Stables, a 173-acre facility that stands out among the best in the country. The Stables include a covered arena, an FEI regulation outdoor dressage arena, a 5-acre turf event field available for schooling horses and special events, main barn and receiving barn both featuring oversized stalls. There are 15-miles of trails for riding and ponies for painting to introduce even the youngest guest to our equine friends.

GOLF

For the avid golfer, a round of golf at the May River Golf Club is a journey to nirvana. Take in the majesty of century-old live oaks and serene native landscapes as you linger on the scenic, 18-hole Jack Nicklaus Signature Course. Woven throughout the May River Forest are 7,171 yards, with several holes on the banks of the river. Plus, enhance your game in the world-class practice facility. Treat yourself to the ultimate golf paradise.

SHOOTING CLUB

Hunting and shooting sports have been a long-standing tradition at Palmetto Bluff for years (if not centuries). The Palmetto Bluff Shooting Club features 13 sporting clays stations winding through an expansive 40-acre forest. An elevated and covered 5-stand station, plus a wobble deck field make for a total of 15 shooting sites. The course is designed to be subordinate to the landscape while providing a fun and challenging recreational shooting environment for the novice through advanced shooter, regardless of age, ability, or experience.

WILSON LAWN & RACQUET CLUB

This expansive club facility includes eight Har-Tru tennis courts, two bocce courts, four courtside shelters and a well-equipped pro shop and pavilion. Healthy populations of pine and live oak provide shade and ambiance, while four lighted exhibition-size courts are home to plenty of excitement, day and night. Clinics, lessons and tournaments complete the experience, so your whole family can look forward to the next big court appearance when playing tennis at Palmetto Bluff.

*A destination
